Catholic Schools are faith communities which...

- ◆ engage students in a life-long faith journey rooted in the person of Jesus
- ◆ nurture spirituality through a Gospel-centered approach to learning in all subjects
- ◆ impart knowledge through religious education and family life education programs

“The perspective of life which Catholic education provides to its graduates is of benefit not only to them, their families and their church, but to the common good of all citizens.”

Catholic School Boards need trustees who...

- ◆ have a vision of Catholic education that is Christ-centered
- ◆ are committed to educating students in the Roman Catholic tradition
- ◆ are willing to work with all partners within and beyond the Catholic education community
- ◆ are willing to devote time to prayer and reflection, to meetings, to public functions and to addressing concerns of Catholic school voters

Catholic Trustees are accountable to Catholic school electors for...

- ◆ establishing the system's mission and goals
- ◆ supporting student achievement in the school community
- ◆ establishing the annual budget
- ◆ developing policies to ensure the efficient operation of the board
- ◆ determining the type, size and location of schools
