

Archdiocese of Toronto

REGISTRATION: GO
AND ANNOUNCE GOOD
NEWS OF GREAT JOY

Fill out this form and return to:

OFFICE OF FORMATION FOR DISCIPLESHIP

E-mail: formation@archtoronto.org

Mail to: Archdiocese of Toronto,
1155 Yonge Street,
Toronto, Ontario. M4T 1W2

Fax to: 416-934-3431

ATTENDEE INFORMATION:

Name: _____

Home Address: _____

Daytime Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Parish Name: _____

City/Town: _____

SELECT 2 SESSIONS ONLY:

Role of the Programme Co-ordinator

Joyce Rerrie

Understanding the process of sacramental preparation and having a good relationship and clear guidelines with the pastor, school principal, and classroom teacher.

A Community of Reconciliation: Preparing Children for First Reconciliation

Jim Dunn

Forgiveness is in abundance in the Gospel message. Children are encouraged to understand the importance of forgiveness, both forgiving and being forgiven, as taught by Jesus in the Our Father.

The Catechist as Storyteller

Beverly O'Grady

How to enliven the scripture stories you plan to share for First Communion, First Reconciliation or anytime young children come together for faith formation.

10 Great Ideas for Improving Parent Involvement in Sacramental Prep Meetings

Anne Jamieson

Getting them there in the first place and supporting them as first teachers of the faith.

The Power of the Confirmation Retreat

David Dayler

A practical look at planning and executing a good Confirmation retreat.

Room for All God's Children

Christine Way Skinner

A wealth of strategies for inclusive sacramental catechesis that provides for children (and adults) with special needs.

Creative Ways for Engaging Youth

Don Beyers

Discover tools, techniques and activities for captivating the attention of children and youth in your faith formation programme.

Where Can I Find the Answers?

Constance Price

Learn to navigate the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the Compendium of the Catechism and some helpful websites to assist you with answering questions about what the Church teaches.

Music, Catechesis and Sacramental Preparation

Dan Smith

Music enhances the liturgical celebration and can be a tool for understanding the internalizing key catechetical concepts.